

RESOLUTION ON THE DEATH OF MAYOR ROSCOE C. ROWE

Whereas, the City Council of Annapolis City has learned with profound sorrow of the death of Honorable Roscoe C. Rowe, Mayor of the City of Annapolis; and

Whereas, Roscoe C. Rowe was for many years a leader in the State of Maryland, in public life and distinguished himself for his character, and devotion to the interests and growth of the City of Annapolis and won for himself the respect and affection of the public for his services to the community, not only as a private citizen but as a public servant in the many civil and military offices which he held; and

Whereas, his integrity, ability and devotion to his Country, its citizens and his family enabled him to make a substantial and valuable contribution to the City of Annapolis, State of Maryland, and his Country. NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED by the Acting Mayor and the City Council of the City of Annapolis, that by the death of the Honorable Roscoe C. Rowe, the City of Annapolis has been bereft of one of its most prominent figures, and the citizens of the City of Annapolis deprived of one of its outstanding Mayors, and the community as a whole deprived of a beloved and distinguished citizen. AND BE IT FURTHER

RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be spread among the journals and minutes of this Council and that a copy, suitably engrossed, be sent to the family of the late Roscoe C. Rowe in testimony of the sympathy of the City of Annapolis in their bereavement.
